Notices

1.  There was too little response in order to hold Messy Church on Saturday 16th April. We will need to reconsider when the next one might be held.

2. St Mary's Youth and Children. Sunday Club (ages 4 - 11) will start up as soon as possible. If you know of any children who might be interested in joining Sunday Club please ask their parents to contact Andy King. Tel. 07708590704.

3. Together@Ten. The monthly Family Services at St. Mary's are now known as 'Together@Ten' – A monthly All Age Service. There isn't one this week as it is Easter Day so the next one will be on Sunday 15th May.

4. PCC. The first meeting of the new PCC at St Mary's will be held on Monday 25th April at 7pm in the Church.

5. Home Group. The Home Group now meet on Mondays during school term time. (Not this week.) They usually meet at 7.30pm each week via an online Zoom video meeting at present. All are welcome to join in at any time. Please get in touch with your email address if you would like to be involved. Tel. 07773170714.

6. Fair Trade. St. Mary's and The Church of The Holy Spirit are both registered as Fair Trade Churches and Angela and Steve Chandler are our new reps. Angela has catalogues, if you would like to have a look at one, and can take any orders you may have. Tel. 518696.

7. Easy Fund Raising. Don't forget, when doing your shopping on-line, to shop via www.easyfundraising.org.uk to raise some extra money for St. Mary's at no cost to yourself. We currently have 27 people supporting us and our total raised so far is £624.17. Ask Andy King for more details. (07708590704)

Holy Spirit:

N.B. No service at Holy Spirit today

The first Easter was the day that changed everything. The rule of sin and death – the 'old order' mentioned in the Collect, below, which undermines the human endeavour, was overcome by the death and resurrection of Christ. By faith in him we are freed from that 'old order', to share in a new life. Now we know we are the beloved children of the Father in heaven, called to bear witness to his Kingdom on earth.

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

First Reading Acts 10: 34 – 43

³⁴ Then Peter began to speak: ‘I now realise how true it is that God does not show favouritism ³⁵but accepts from every nation the one who fears him and does what is right. ³⁶You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, announcing the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. ³⁷You know what has happened throughout the province of Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached – ³⁸how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him. ³⁹‘We are witnesses of everything he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a cross, ⁴⁰but God raised him from the dead on the third day and caused him to be seen. ⁴¹He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen – by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴²He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.’

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 15: 19 – 26

¹⁹ If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. ²⁰ But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹ For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. ²² For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. ²³ But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him. ²⁴ Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power. ²⁵ For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶ The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Gospel Reading John 20: 1 – 18

¹ Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. ² So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, ‘They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!’ ³ So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. ⁴ Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵ He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. ⁶ Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, ⁷ as well as the cloth that had been wrapped round Jesus’ head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen. ⁸ Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. ⁹ (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.) (Continued)

¹⁰ Then the disciples went back to where they were staying. ¹¹ Now Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb ¹² and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus’ body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. ¹³ They asked her, ‘Woman, why are you crying?’ ‘They have taken my Lord away,’ she said, ‘and I don’t know where they have put him.’ ¹⁴ At this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realise that it was Jesus. ¹⁵ He asked her, ‘Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?’ Thinking he was the gardener, she said, ‘Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.’ ¹⁶ Jesus said to her, ‘Mary.’ She turned towards him and cried out in Aramaic, ‘Rabboni!’ (which means ‘Teacher’). ¹⁷ Jesus said, ‘Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, “I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.”’ ¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: ‘I have seen the Lord!’ And she told them that he had said these things to her.

Next Sunday

Sunday 24th April: Please note there are no morning services next Sunday at either St Mary’s or Holy Spirit. There will be a team Service of Holy Communion (CW) at St Mary’s at 6.30pm.

Plymouth Foodbank

Plymouth Foodbank is running out of several essential items and are appealing for donations of the following: Long life fruit juice, long life milk, tinned rice pudding, tinned custard, tinned fruit, tinned meat (especially things like minced beef, curries, stewed steak), large size nappies (size 6 or 7), cereals, shampoo, deodorants (men and women’s), tea and coffee. Perhaps you could buy an extra item when you do your shopping. A box will be at the back of St Mary’s for collecting any donations. Thank you.

Aid For Ukraine

A huge thank you to everyone who donated bedding and toiletries to support Belief in Action (BiA) work in Transylvania with Ukrainian refugees. All donations were taken to the BiA store near Bristol and have been sent on to Secele, in Transylvania, via lorry. A team from BiA are going out to Transylvania on 6th April to help organise a structured response for the very many disabled and elderly refugees coming into the region. Please remember us in your prayers. THANK YOU. Pat Eyres

Retiring Collection

We will continue with the retiring collection at the back of St Mary’s Church today for the Disasters Emergency Committee’s Ukraine Appeal, so people who wish to make a donation can do so. It will be the last one this week.
