Communion Readings: Colossians 1: 15 – 28, Luke 10: 38 - end

Jesus once said 'I am among you as one who serves' (Luke 22: 27). His whole life was given up for the salvation of others, in the service of God's kingdom. He calls us to share in the same mission: to reach out to people who are lost in their sin, pain or alienation with compassion, forgiveness and encouragement. Each of us has, as today's Collect (below) puts it, a 'vocation and ministry' to serve others.

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please remember in your prayers this week:

First Reading Colossians 1: 15 – 28

¹⁵ The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶ For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. ²¹ Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behaviour. ²² But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation – ²³ if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant. ²⁴ Now I rejoice in what I am suffering for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions, for the sake of his body, which is the church. ²⁵ I have become its servant by the commission God gave me to present to you the word of God in its fullness – ²⁶ the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the Lord's people. ²⁷ To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸ He is the one we proclaim, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ.

Second Reading Luke 10: 38 - 42

³⁸ As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him. ³⁹ She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said. ⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, 'Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!' ⁴¹ 'Martha, Martha,' the Lord answered, 'you are worried and upset about many things, ⁴² but few things are needed – or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.'

Exploring Prayer

Angie Andrews has set up a new prayer group at The Church of The Holy Spirit which meets on the third Saturday of each month at 10am. All are welcome. It will look at exploring prayer and how we talk to God in different ways. The next one is on 20th August.

Reading Matthew 3: 13 - 17

¹³ At that time Jesus arrived from Galilee and came to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ But John tried to make him change his mind. "I ought to be baptized by you," John said, "and yet you have come to me!" ¹⁵ But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so for now. For in this way we shall do all that God requires." So John agreed. ¹⁶ As soon as Jesus was baptized, he came up out of the water. Then heaven was opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove and lighting on him. ¹⁷ Then a voice said from heaven, "This is my own dear Son, with whom I am pleased."

Summer Quiz Night

Mick and Val Howell have volunteered to draw up and run the quiz this Friday evening! (Thank you Mick and Val!) It is in St. Mary's Church Hall on Friday 22nd July. We estimate we can have about 14 tables with teams of 4 - 6 people on each table. Tickets are on sale at £3 each and you are invited to bring your own drink and 'nibbles'. Please get your team together and get your tickets as soon as you can as we have now opened it up to both Churches and the local community too. Don't worry if you are on your own or if you can't get a whole team together as we will link people together to help make up the teams. All proceeds will be in aid of the Flush Fund. If you would like to take some tickets to sell, or for more information please contact Andy King via: andy@saintmarys.org.uk or 07708590704

Please take care this week in the hot weather. Please ensure you are drinking enough fluids and do check on any of your neighbours who might be suffering in the heat. Thank you.

The Rev'd Prebendary James Grier, a former member of St. Mary's, has been appointed as the new Bishop of Plymouth. James will be consecrated bishop at Southwark Cathedral on Thursday 29th September and there will be a welcome service for him at Exeter Cathedral on Sunday 9th October.
